November 11, 2015

Aggie Agora Community Dialogue

With guest Be the Bridge

B/CS Be the Bridge exists to raise awareness and promote racial unity among the residents of Bryan/College Station through open dialogue and education. Come let your voice be heard and hear testimonies from other members of the community about racial inequality.

All community members welcome!!!!

6:30pm-8:30pm

Wednesday November 11, 2015

BCS Be the Bridge members will be there to facilitate the dialogue

Refreshments provided!!!

The Liberal Arts and Humanities Building
349 Spence St, College Station
TX 78840
Room 453

Directions on back
Directions:

With valid TAMU Parking Pass:

- Lots 55 and 54 are located closest to the LAAH building. These lots are unrestricted after 5:00pm with a valid parking pass. Both lots are located off of Bizzell St.

Without valid TAMU Parking Pass:

- The Central Campus Garage is located off of Lubbock St. Follow Bizzell St. south towards George Bush Dr. Turn right onto Lubbock St. and follow the signs into the Central Campus Garage.
- If you are facing towards Bizzell St., the (LAAH) Liberal Arts and Humanities Building is located to the left of the (CCG) Central Campus Garage.